Candace – I am finally getting a chance to download these statements. I am sorry to bother you, but it looks as though I need a password to access these files. Could you please send what I need to open them up?

Thanks.

Subject: [External] October 2019 Billing Statements

Good morning Barbara:

Below are October, 2019 Billing Statements. I was out of the office when these were done. One of my team members completed them for October. As you can see, November, 2019 is typed at the top of the Billing Summary Statement. All work on the invoices was for the month of October, 2019. John may have had some old time on some of those invoices. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Candace Fissell
